"KATHLYN"

Hesitation WALTZ Valse-Boston

The Greatest Song about the Greatest Game in the World

"Our next song!"—said Al Piantadosi and Joe Goodwin, authors of "That's How I Need You" (one of the few really great Ballad successes)—"must be still greater."

This seemed like painting the lily. But that is exactly what this rising team of writers have done. "When You Play in the Game of Love" is one ballad in a thousand. As old as is the "Game of Love," never before have its smiles or sorrows been portrayed so naively, so ingenuously, or set to such heart-felt Arcadian-simple melody as in this latest ballad-hit, "When You Play in the Game of Love."

REFRAIN

Some-times it's joy for the girl-ie and boy, Then blue as the skies up a - bove,— Some-times you're sad, Some-times you're ad lib
glad, When you play in the "Game of Love."—

The "Movie" Sensation becomes the Waltz Sensation

Are you one of the hundreds of thousands who can hardly wait for next week to come, when at some moving picture theatre you are held spell-bound as Miss Williams unfolds the story of Selig's spectacular $140,000 serial Photodrama—"The Adventures of Kathlyn"?

We've dedicated a Waltz to Miss Williams. We've named it "Kathlyn." A waltz to be so named had to be a great waltz. IT IS. Miss Williams calls it "HER Waltz." As a HESITATION or VALSE BOSTON it has the Rhythm dancers are "hungry" for.
